

As an active amateur radio operator I am strongly opposed to BPL due to the issue of interference to communications. I have fought with the local power company for years in an attempt to resolve interference from simple discharge from defective insulators to trees causing arcing. This alone has been a very trying process. Adding interference from the use of BPL sanctioned by the FCC is ludicrous.

Steven Riggs
W9SWR